COMMUNICATION

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Sometime earlier this year, the previous attorney in this case, who no longer has a Power of Attorney in this case, moved his office and mistakenly filed a Change of Correspondence Address in this case. The Patent Office mistakenly entered the Change of Correspondence Address, mistakenly associated the above-referenced application with his customer number, and mistakenly dis-associated it from my customer number.

On August 30, 2007, a clerk at the Patent Office mailed a communication, indicating some formality problems with the Appeal Brief that I filed on August 1, 2007, to the previous attorney. He eventually mailed the communication to me, but since I had moved my office in the interim, I did not get the communication until recently.

I discussed this situation with Examiner Hoey today. She suggested that I file a Change of Correspondence Address, and then she will be able to attend to resending the communication indicating formality problems, and restarting the response period.

PATENT
0815-4001

Please resend the communication indicating formality problems to me, and restart the response period.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: November 26, 2007
